JEFF DOMM

Guest Artist

Jeff Domm is a wildlife and nature illustrator, designer and author with over 35 published books related to the awareness and protection of our natural world. His published work includes the field guides, East Coast Backyard Nature Guide and East Coast Trees and Shrubs. As well as the children's books Wild Pond Hockey, Little Brother of the North - A Puffin's Story, and many others. His most recent release is a new rendition of his popular backyard bird guide aimed at younger naturalists and titled My First East Coast Bird Book. Signed copies of this book are currently available in the Cole Harbour Heritage Farm Gift Shop.

Jeff has been teaching illustration, design and drawing at NSCAD University in Halifax since 1992. He works with gouache paint and most recently in digital painting to capture the smallest details required for proper identification of species in his newest books. Jeff is member of the Scientific Illustrators Society and Guild of Natural Science Illustrators. Jeff lives and works from his studio along the Atlantic Coast in Cow Bay, Nova Scotia.
